

Klein 7 on 7 Football Teams excelling in summer play Varsity qualifies for State Tournament

The Klein High Scholl Bearkats 7 on 7 Football team has won the right to participate in the 2008 State 7 on 7 Tournament at Texas A&M University in College Station July 11 and 12. Coach Rod Johnson's team won the 7 on 7 Tournament at Cy Creek and qualified for the state tournament. The State Tournament will be pool play and the elimination tournament will crown a champion Saturday afternoon on Kyle Field.

For more details about the State Tournament you can view their web site at <http://www.5atexasfootball.com/7on7.htm> The tournament is open to the public.

The Klein varsity 7 on 7 team is not a KISD sanctioned sport nor is the team sponsored by the Klein Football Booster Club. The 7 on 7 organization is an independent group that participates in the State 7 on 7 organization and abides by their rules.

The Klein 7 on 7 organization also fields a Junior Varsity team coached by Ken Rideout and Wheeler Pinkston. The JV team plays in an area league, playing 3 games every Wednesday in June. A league tournament is scheduled for July 9th at The Woodlands High School. The JV team record is 6 wins and 0 losses through the first 2 weeks of league play.

The Klein 7 on 7 Freshman team(s) also participate in the area league and also play on Wednesday nights. The Freshman field 2 teams due to the large number of participants.

Freshmen Coach Kevin Quisenberry's teams are 5-1 and 3-3 in league play. The freshman 7 on 7 also play a league tournament at The Woodlands July 9th starting at 4:30 pm.

Former Klein players help coach the freshman players under the guidance of Coach Quisenberry and include Horace Gibson, Huntley Grichor and Derek McDonough.
